

NATIONAL LIBRARY OF GREECE & MANOS AND ANASTASIA FALTAITS MUSEUM

The President of the Council of the National Library of Greece, Ch. M. Moutsopoulos and the Deputy General Director of the National Library of Greece, A. Arahova, cordially invite you to the opening of the exhibition: "How Asia Minor Died... 90 years since the Asia Minor Disaster" on occasion of the 90th anniversary of the Asia Minor Disaster, in collaboration with the Manos and Anastasia Faltaits Museum. The event will take place on Friday, November 30th 2012, 17:30 p.m. at the Central Reading Room of the National Library of Greece, 32 Panepistimiou st, Athens (The exhibition will be presented both in English and Greek).

Speakers:

C. Korre - Zografou, President of the Friends of the National Library of Greece, Founding Member of the Friends of the Manos and Anastasia Faltaits Museum

A. Faltaits, Co-founder of the Manos and Anastasia Faltaits Museum, Historian

F. Papalimnaiou, Curator of the Exhibit, G. Secretary of the Friends of the Manos and Anastasia Faltaits Museum

A. Tzakou, Architect, Museographer

A. Vathakou, President of the Friends of the Manos and Anastasia Faltaits Museum

E. Tsirkas, President of the Association of Smyrneans

L. Christodoulou, Vice President of the ΚΕ.ΜΙ.ΠΟ, N. Ionia

E. Solomonidou – Balanou, Member of the Board of the Association of Smyrneans

Documentary Screening: The Chronicle of Exile, produced by the Museum – ERT Archive

The Traditional Choir of the Ο.Π.Α.Ν of the N. Ionia Municipality will perform songs from Asia Minor – Conductor and Tutor V. Sarantidis. The Choir will be accompanied by the musicians: V. Sarantidis – violin, S. Spanou – santouri, I. Heliadis – laouto, G. Pavlidis – guitar.

Opening speeches: the President of the Council of the National Library of Greece, Mr. Ch. M. Moutsopoulos and the Deputy General Director of the National Library of Greece, Miss A. Arahova. The exhibition is sponsored by a Member of the Friends of the Manos and Anastasia Faltaits Museum.

For Info: 210 3392093, 210 3637938